Monday 5th December

Week 9 Term 4

Proposed Stop Work Meeting

The NSW Teachers Federation has proposed a Stop Work Meeting on the morning of Thursday 8th December. Teachers at our school will not be striking and classes will run as normal.

Presentation Assembly

Next Monday 12th December we will hold our last assembly for the year. This assembly will be held in the infants classroom starting at 10am and will conclude with a shared morning tea. We are requesting that all families bring a plate to share for this occasion. The students would love to see you there as they have been preparing some special items to show you. As this is a formal assembly all students are required to wear their full school uniform. Girls, green shirts with maroon bottoms with their hair tied back and the boys are required to wear their green shirts with grey shorts.

Macadamia Castle

Our end of year excursion will take place at the Macadamia Castle on Wednesday the 14th December. This excursion will conclude at 12.30 when we will travel back to school for a BBQ lunch. We are requesting that students be dropped off at the Macadamia Castle between 9.15 and 9.30am. We will transport the students back to school for lunch. The teachers are looking forward to spending this fun day with all the students. A permission note is attached.

Last Day Water Fun

We will conclude our school year with a fun water play day. All activities will be prepared by the teachers. Students are not to bring water pistols or water toys to school. Students will need to wear their swimmers, rash shirt or t-shirt and shorts that can get wet. Please pack a towel and dry clothes to change into.

30th January 2017

Monday the 30th January will be the first day back to school for all students K-6. Reminders will be sent out via the School Stream App. If you are not returning on this day please let us know.

Harvest Café

Two lots of students will visit the Harvest café this week as they have reached 200 Dojo points for classroom application.
