Week 6 Term 2

Welcome to another week of learning!

Last week I had the joy of meeting with the Director Peter Campbell. I wore my bragging hat while informing him about all the wonderful things our school community has accomplished already this year. He was very impressed to hear how our school is developing and moving forward.

School Photos

We have requested our school group photos be retaken as they were not up to professional standard. The school photographer will return next term on the 4th August. This will delay families receiving their purchased photos. We apologise for the inconvenience this may cause.

Athletics Carnival

The Ballina Small Schools Athletics carnival is taking place on Friday 16th June at a new venue, the Geoff Watt Oval in Alstonville. This change of venue is due to the closing of Ballina High School. More information next week.

Cooking

This Wednesday we will be making Chia Pudding for our cooking lesson. Cost $3

Teacher/Student Conferences

Over the next three weeks the students will be meeting with their teachers for a personal conference about their learning. This meeting will allow the students to reflect on what they know and what they need to work towards. Each student will be identifying personal learning goals in literacy and numeracy.

Book Club

The current Book Club catalogue is attached to the newsletter today. Our last order earned the school $98 in book vouchers. Please return orders by Friday 9th June.
